

Projected Land Itinerary

Wednesday, July 11, 2018

- So it begins! This is the day you will be embarking across the world for Athens, Greece. You should plan to meet at the American Airlines Check-in Desk in the PHL Airport by 1:15PM. After the group makes it through security, you will have some time to grab a bite to eat before departing at 4:25PM.

Thursday, July 12, 2018

- Hopefully you got a little bit of rest during your flight! You will arrive in Athens at 9:10 AM with a restful, but full, day ahead.
- After transferring to your lodging accommodations at the Greek Bible College, you will have a brief orientation to obtain valuable information about your time in Greece.
- Once the group has finished orientation, settled in, and freshened up, you will have your first opportunity to hit the streets for a traditional Greek Gyro.
- With your stomach full, but jet lag starting to affect you, enjoy the rest of the day relaxing and breathing in the fresh air at Rafina Beach.
- End the day with a meal at the Greek Bible College, followed by an early night to bed!

Friday, July 13, 2018

- After a filling breakfast, you will take on your first full day in Athens where you will witness the remains of the Parthenon, a temple built in the 447 BC for the Greek goddess Athena Parthenon.
- You will then have the opportunity to explore the Acropolis Museum and learn more about the Parthenon and other aspects of the Acropolis archaeological site.
- Next, lunch will be on your own where you may enjoy some fresh hummus or grape leaves!
- This afternoon, you will have a unique opportunity to make your academic learning even more practical, connecting with and learning from a local business.
- Finish off the day with another dinner and debrief time at the Greek Bible College.

Projected Land Itinerary

Saturday, July 14, 2018

- Start your day off with breakfast and relaxation at the Greek Bible College before boarding a private coach bus to travel to Corinth. As a city full of historical and biblical significance, you are sure to have an enlightening and exciting time. Your full day of touring here will also include lunch arranged by the Greece Bible College.
- Upon returning to the Greek Bible College, you will have a free evening to explore and enjoy dinner as you choose. May we recommend the traditional Moussaka dinner, topped off with some tasty gelato?

Sunday, July 15, 2018

- With built in free time, today's schedule will provide you ample time to explore and to discover more of what Athens has to offer!
- The day will start with a group breakfast in the city, followed by a time of worship with local brothers and sisters.
- After church, you and the group will head to the beautiful, car-free, cobblestone streets of Plaka. Here, you will enjoy lunch and dinner at your choice of restaurants and will get to shop until you drop. Just make sure you have enough space in your luggage!

Monday, July 16, 2018

- At this point, we hope you have been able to soak in the many wonders of this beautiful country. Today's agenda will shift a bit, with the group setting out to learn about some of the different ministries and services taking place in the city. You will be exposed to some of the challenges that the country faces, how ministries are meeting related needs, and roll up your sleeves and serve in a practical manner. And don't worry, we'll make sure you are well briefed and prepared beforehand!
- On a practical level, lunch will be more basic in the midst of serving and the day will culminate with a dinner and debrief at the Greek Bible College.
