COURSE & CULTURAL ENGAGEMENT

Embark on an unforgettable journey to Alaska, where you'll soak in its stunning landscapes and dive deep into Soldotna's culture. This trip offers a rare, optional opportunity to partner with a Mission Aviation Organization for flight training, providing valuable skills in a challenging environment. Engage with local missionaries who will enlighten you about Alaska's Native youth and young adults, offering a unique cultural experience. Don't miss this opportunity to combine Alaska's beauty with field-specific learning.

ACADEMIC ENRICHMENT

The School of Aeronautics has a mission focused on preparing students for careers in aerospace while emphasizing their growth as individuals and as Christians. Achieve this through a curriculum that combines learning about Mission Aviation opportunities in Alaska, Alaska Native Culture, and specialized flight training. Additionally, students have the enrichment potential to engage with Native Christian College students and Alaska Missionary Pilots, fostering community, faith-based leadership, and participation in service activities. Ultimately, the school's goal is to equip and mentor students, sending them as champions for Christ into the Aerospace Community.
