COURSE & CULTURAL ENGAGEMENT

Join the School of Divinity on our trip to Honduras! Work alongside vibrant local churches ministering to the people of Honduras, serve those being ministered to through medical missions, and get an opportunity to share with Honduran pastors training at a local seminary. This is an opportunity to do Gospel work in a cross-cultural context!

ACADEMIC ENRICHMENT

Students in today's culture need an understanding of the world outside the United States. This trip is focused on helping students learn about and respect another culture. There will be an element of better understanding local needs as served by a non-profit. Additionally, students will have the opportunity to help with an organization to help support and empower young women by participating in faith-based activities.
