COURSE & CULTURAL ENGAGEMENT

Experience first-hand the mission field of the Apostle Paul in Greece! Journey from ancient Macedonia to Achaia and explore key biblical sites visited by Paul during his second and third missionary journeys. See Philippi where Paul and Silas were imprisoned and miraculously released; Thessalonica, where Paul and his companions fearlessly proclaimed Christ despite significant opposition; Athens, where Paul addressed the philosophers on Mars Hill; and Corinth, where Paul wrote three of his epistles while ministering to those in this large urban center. Along the way, you will also experience sites of significant cultural and historical importance such as Meteora, and Delphi. As a result of your journey, you will develop a fuller understanding and greater appreciation of the missionary work of the Apostle Paul and the complex world in which he ministered.
