COURSE & CULTURAL ENGAGEMENT

Although we speak a common language, the people of the United Kingdom see business very differently than Americans. Explore small and large businesses and gain insight into these differences. Discover how faith in the workplace is viewed in a land of significant Christian spiritual history. Students will be exposed to how business operates globally and will be better prepared to operate in any size organization - here in the U.S. or abroad. Travel to England with the School of Business to develop a global edge!
