Trip Overview

TRIP OBJECTIVES

Join us for one month in Greece! Study the New Testament in the land around which much of the New Testament revolved around. Stand where Paul preached at Mars Hill. Visit Philippi. Take your text-only grasp of the Bible to a full-color experience!

Take note: Undergraduate students only. Students must be eligible to receive credit for both BIBL364 and either BIBL350 or BIBL360."

ACADEMIC ELIGIBILITY

Students may earn course credit towards the completion of their degree. Eligibility to receive course credit will be determined based on whether the selected course is required for the student's degree completion plan.

For trips that offer Academic Enrichment (not for credit), students whose major falls within the sponsoring department may participate without enrolling in a course. Refer to the "At a Glance" section to see the list of courses and academic enrichment eligibility of your trip.

ITINERARY DISCLAIMER

The final itinerary will be sent closer to departure. LU Send works closely with an In-country provider and Professors to provide the best tour possible. However, the itinerary is subject to change due to risk considerations, scheduling conflicts, etc.

TRAINING & TEAM MEETINGS

As part of the LU Send experience you will be expected to attend at least 3 pre-trip meetings and 1 post-trip debrief meeting. These gatherings will give opportunity to meet your professors and other leaders, as well as other travelers. You will also work through some short, basic training including topics such as Spiritual Vitality Abroad, Cultural Intelligence, Cross-Cultural Discipleship, Global Security, and Travel Health. Exact details of meeting times and locations will be given once team is complete.
